MaxKnowledge Partners with Career College Central

Lenexa, KS, February 16, 2012 - Career College Central has partnered with MaxKnowledge to enhance their mission of helping career educators fulfill professional development and continuing education needs.

CareerCollegeCentral.com has been completely revamped and reorganized to provide professionals in the career college sector of higher education with the resources they need to succeed. The newly launched Career College Central Online Training Center offers over 100 courses in 10 different categories, free tutorials and free higher education lessons. Additionally, it offers access to the largest online social learning network dedicated to the career college sector - The Lounge.

"We partnered with MaxKnowledge because we feel no other organization in the career college sector of higher education serves the growing need for high quality employee development services better than MaxKnowledge," said Bridget Duffy, Director of New Business. "As the definitive voice of the career college sector of higher education, Career College Central has been a leading advocate for career colleges" said Dr. Amir Moghadam, President and CEO of MaxKnowledge. "We are proud to partner with such a well-respected leader in the sector."
